

In April, it was time to talk about attachment methods. We had a tag team for this one, with Mike, Troy Beall and Tom Jackson all pitching in to talk about and show us the wide range of methods available for putting our work on the lathe. Topics ranged from the old standby face plate, to screw chucks, jam chucks and the latest and greatest scroll

Mike shows us faceplates

Tom discusses attachment methods