

In June, Troy Beall shared his tips for tool control while turning a thin walled, natural edge bowl. The chips were flying as Troy showed his mounting and rough out procedure and then moved on to carefully shape the very thin walls of the bowl without blowing out.

We also welcomed two new members to BAT as Brian Sweeney and Keith Hold became our newest paid members, bringing our total paid membership to